in Harry Potter or a beautifully illustrated classic.

Meandering over to the back street, reminded me that gift certificates from one of Middleburg's fine restaurants also make an ideal gift for those who "have everything." It's also a great way to support the "Think Green" ecological movement, since many local restaurants like The Hidden Horse and French Hound feature Sally Bolton's (of Comer Garden fame) home-grown vegetables on their menus.

Right next door to Gerry Chidick's fragrant Floral Gallery (which offers a charm-place to find hats, shoes, and purses of the Roaring Twenties, or classic designs reminiscent of Jacqueline Kennedy in the 1950s at tres reasonable prices.

For those who absolutely love treasure hunts and haunts, The White Elephant awaits you. The shop's inventory is definitely one of a kind and varies day by day, so those who love surprises do indeed love this place. You may find a piece of fine old estate silver, an almost new gown or cashmere sweater, an old shipping chest, a classic painting of unknown origin, a marvelous faux-marble pilaster, or an English copper coal scuttle (don't we all need one of those?). And prices are so reasonable you'll designs and holiday decorating ideas are a gift to all the senses. Flowers are only a part of their story, however, for the charming rooms at Country Way brim with unique gifts and gorgeous hand-crafted Christmas wreaths to enhance every home and delight every recipient. With prices starting at $15, you'll find something perfect here for your favorite friends.

These are only a few of the many fine Middleburg shops offering unique gifts, great buys and a warm welcome without the hassle.
